Answer no one since the court already decided this issue in the following cases:

Here is how the Appellate Criminal Courts of Texas have answered this request:

"The court has held that there is no such license known to Texas Law as a "driver's license." Frank John Callas v. State, 167 Tex. Crim. 375; 320 S.W. 2d 360

And...

"We have held that there is no such license as a driver's license known to our law." Claude D. Campbell v. State, 160 Tex. Crim. 627; 274 S.W. 2d 401

And...

"An information charging the driving of a motor vehicle upon a public highway without a driver's license charges no offense, as there is no such license as a driver's license known to the law." Keith Brooks v. State, 158 Tex. Crim. 546; 258 S.W. 2d 317

And...

"There being no such license as a "driver's" license known to the law, it follows that the information, in charging the driving of a motor vehicle upon a highway without such a license, charges no offense." W. Lee Hassell v. The State, 149 Tex. Crim. 333; 194 S.W. 2d 400

...there is a saying, "If an honest man who is misinformed is informed of the truth, he either ceases to be misinformed or ceases to be honest."
